Good service, helpful staff when ordering. I was unsure about some of the dishes on the menu and the person on the phone clearly knew what she was talking about. What User doesn't like about Jenny's House:

Fish is probably the best in the area, cooked just right but service is usually excruciatingly slow. Chips are good too. However, this evening I was short changed by and when challenged, within seconds, instead of correcting a mistake they argued a bit then...had to go off and review the video evidence which took some time but proved me right. The assistant then put a note in a tray and started giggling, no apology f... read more.
